

Brant DeMuth joins Bridge City Capital

LAKE OSWEGO, November 15, 2021 – Bridge City Capital, LLC today announced that Brant H. DeMuth, CFA has joined Bridge City’s investment team.

DeMuth joins Bridge City from Bonanza Creek Energy, Inc. where he was Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. He has extensive capital markets experience, having served in a number of corporate leadership, finance, strategy, and development roles with publicly traded energy and bio-industrial companies. As CFO of Bonanza Creek, Brant was responsible for $3 billion of mergers and $500 million of fixed income issuance, taking the company’s enterprise value from approximately $300 million to over $5.5 billion.

Prior to his corporate roles, Brant spent 25 years as a portfolio manager with several investment management firms including Invesco Ltd., and Colorado Public Employees Retirement Association. He is a CFA charterholder and received his M.B.A. from the University of Denver and his B.S. from Colorado State University. Brant currently serves on the University of Northern Colorado’s Monfort College of Business Dean’s Leadership Council and previously served as board member of Redfield Energy.

“We’ve known Brant for many years, having worked together in the past, and we could not be more excited for him to join us,” said Alex Woodward, Bridge City’s President. “Brant brings a breadth of valuable expertise and shares our conviction that quality companies with proven track records, strong financial characteristics and above-average growth prospects will outperform over time. Together, we believe Bridge City is exceptionally well positioned for continued success into the future.”

DeMuth said, “I’m thrilled to return to investment management and have the utmost respect for Bridge City’s enviable historic track record of outperformance. The firm’s steadfast commitment to delivering value for its clients and its disciplined investment process are key differentiators and I am honored to be part of this impressive team.”

ABOUT BRIDGE CITY CAPITAL, LLC

Bridge City Capital, LLC (BCC) is an Oregon Limited Liability Company and a SEC registered investment advisory firm, headquartered in Lake Oswego, Oregon. The firm was founded by Steve Brink, Alex Woodward and Jim Bradshaw and began managing its small cap growth investment strategy on July 1, 2009. BCC has been focused exclusively on managing small cap growth assets for institutions since its inception. For more information visit www.bridgcitycap.com.

###